Let’s Talk about Battle Mountain

Jeannette continues to support her father and his grand ideas. Why does she do this?

What is special about Battle Mountain to Jeanette?

What happens with Jeannette and Billy Deel? Why does she hide it?

Dad asks often if he has let his children down. Why is this answer important to him?

How does this section demonstrate Rex and Mary’s disregard for the innocence of childhood?

How does Jeannette feel about her Grandma?

Jeanette’s Mom finishes these chapters with the words “I’m such an excitement addict!” How does this make us feel about her?